Clarification No.3

Government College for Men, Kadapa was conferred autonomous status by UGC on 03.11.2011. But it came into force from the academic year 2012-13. During the same year data relating to UG and PG programmes were uploaded to AISHE. The AISHE nodal coordinator from the affiliated YV University, Kadapa, Prof.N. Jaya Raju, advised us to send the data relating to UG programmes separately as the UG programmes come under Autonomous and data relating to PG programmes separately as they come under affiliated YV University, Kadapa. Since then, we have been uploading data relating to UG programmes and PG programmes separately. As a result, we have been receiving two separate certificates with two different ID numbers. One certificate for UG programmes with ID No: C-30200 and another certificate for PG programmes with ID No: C-30274.
