Brief Description with Outcomes:

Govt. college for men(A), Kadapa NSS Units conducted an awareness program on "Risk communication and community engagement (RCCE)" on 08.07.2022 to the staff, NSS volunteers, and Students. Principal Dr G. Ravindranath Explains Risk communication and its importance in disaster preparedness, public health, and preparation for major global catastrophic risks For example, the impacts of climate change and climate risk affect every part of society, so communicating that risk is an important climate communication practice, for societies to plan for climate adaptation Similarly, in pandemic prevention, understanding of risk helps communities stop the spread of disease and improve responses. NSS unit-1, 2, and 3 program officers Dr. C. Narasimha Rao, Dr A. Nagaraju, Dr Y. Savithri, NSS volunteers, teaching, and non-teaching staff, and students have participated in this program.

It taught the students how to be careful in times of disaster.
